WILL HARDLY HAVE SECRET SESSIONS

Friends of the Move Start
Out Three Votes
Short.

In the fight before the City Democratic Committee next Friday night on the resolution offered by Clyde W. Saunders, of Clay Ward, to so amend the bylaws of the body as to provide that all meetings shall be held behind closed doors, a secret session is expected, and the advocates and opponents of the proposed innovation will put forth their best efforts. Indications point to the defeat of the resolution by a substantial vote. There are practically three vacancies in the body, and while the resignation of the members have not been actually accepted, they will not attend, as to do so would be a violation of the Masur ordinance. These three members have usually lined up with the Wigs that seek to inaugurate the secret session change, so that the secret session forces will be strengthened. There is little doubt of the support of the Saunders resolution, and most party men who discuss it are opposed to its passage. Open sessions of public bodies stimulate public confidence, they say, and there is always more or less a feeling of distrust regarding secret sessions. There was a time when the committee held its sessions behind closed doors, but the custom created so much adverse comment that it was abandoned. Several subsequent attempts to return to this custom have failed, because its friends could not muster enough affirmative votes to carry it through.

Hold Series of Services.

The Rev. James Seville, of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, will hold a series of meetings at the Union Gospel Mission, No. 1 North Seventh Street, the first of which was held last night.

These addresses will continue every night until Thursday night, inclusive, at 8 P. M.; also a service will be held at 4 P. M. each day.

A JUDICIOUS INQUIRY.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed.

AGNEW WILL NOT CALL IT WELCOME TO NEW PASTOR

State Chairman of Republicans
Declines Conditionally to Convene Executive Committee.

Large Congregation Greeted Mr.
Knight—Sermon of Encouragement and Hope.

AN ECHO OF THE OLD FIGHT

Agnew Is Charged With Creating Division for Selfish Motives.

For several weeks the Republicans of the faction supporting Mr. George A. Hanson for Congress have been endeavoring to secure a meeting of the Republican State Executive Committee, with a view to having the question of regularity as to the candidacy of Messrs. Hanson and Allan settled. At this time, however, the indications are that both candidates will go before the people, and that the faction getting the larger number of votes will hereafter be recognized as the regular organization.

It is understood that Mr. Hanson himself went to Washington to see Mr. Park Agnew, the Republican State chairman, and to ask him to call the committee together to decide the matter.

Mr. Agnew declined to call the committee, and a majority of the committee-men were secured to call for the meeting. Mr. Hanson and his friends industriously used the long distance phone and the telegraph, and finally secured five of the ten names to a call for a meeting.

Juror in His Own Case.

Eliminating Mr. Allan, a member of the committee, who is one of the parties in interest, the Hanson forces had the signatures of a majority of the committee members, and Agnew was so informed, but did not answer the telegram. He was called up over long distance phone and asked for time before announcing his decision. Next day he stated that he would not call the meeting unless six signatures were secured. The sixth man signed, but afterwards reconsidered, and thus broke the majority of the entire committee. Mr. Agnew was asked if Mr. Allan would be allowed to sit as a juror in his own case, and replied that he was a member of the committee, and, therefore, eligible to sit. It being then so near the date of election, the effort to secure a meeting of the committee was abandoned.

They Are After Agnew.

Mr. Hanson and his friends are charging that Mr. Agnew is not adverse to perpetuating the division of the Third District Republicans, for the reason that he is thereby bettering his own political prospects. A strong fight was made against Mr. Agnew's re-election as State chairman, and as chairman of the Norfolk convention last March, and that the Third District Republicans lined up with the Ninth District in supporting Judge L. L. Lewis for both positions. There was a bitter fight in the convention, but Mr. Agnew won. The fight against Mr. Agnew and his policy of merely will be renewed at the convention to name Governor next summer, and both sides are actively preparing for that struggle. Mr. Agnew is now collector of internal revenue, and his position as party chairman gives him prestige in the struggle for re-election. He was given a seat of honor in the convention, and his opponents are known, are still after his official scalp.

CHILD A WANDERER.

Police Found Her on Seventeenth Street—Had Run Away.

The police of the First District found a pretty twelve-year-old girl wandering about in the vicinity of the Old Market Saturday night, and she was carried in to the First Police Station.

She gave the name of Beale Estridge and said she came from Charlotte, N. C., where she had lived for some time in an orphan's home. The child was neatly and cleanly dressed. She had a doll and some doll's clothes wrapped in a package.

Sergeant Werner took the child to his home on Church Hill and turned her over to Mrs. Werner for safekeeping until further information could be gained concerning her.

Later in the night it was learned that the girl had run away from the home of a family on Chestnut Hill, with whom she had been living for about a week. The child disappeared early in the day and caused much uneasiness. The gentleman from Chestnut Hill called at Mrs. Werner's later Saturday night and took the little girl back home with him.

RARE OLD SKETCHES.

Mr. J. J. English Acquires a Remarkable Series of War Cartoons.

Mr. J. J. English, Jr., manager of the Bell Book and Stationery Company, is now in the possession of an exceedingly unique and valuable collection of sketches relating to the war between the States.

Mr. English is ever a seeker after the new or rather the old and rare in his line, and recently seeing advertised a complete copy of these rare sketches he lost no time in ordering them. They were drawn by an unknown, but gifted artist, who began them in Baltimore in 1861, but his article work was exceedingly offensive to the North, and the advertisement says they were suppressed. The artist went to England and two years later completed the series of twenty-nine. They are as clear and perfect in execution as it is possible to conceive, and the artist was murdered in the defense of the South's cause.

Mr. English has been displaying his treasure to numbers of his friends among booklovers of Richmond, and not one had ever seen a complete set before.

CLUB WAS REPORTED.

Fulcher Brothers, One of Whom Is in Hospital, Are Proprietors.

Sergeant Mathews and Policeman Dugins reported the officers of the Richmond Social and Literary Club Sunday night on the allegation that liquor was sold in the club rooms to persons not members of the club.

The club is operated under a charter. It is located on Broad Street near Seventh, and is offered by the Fulcher brothers, one of whom is now in the condition at the Virginia Hospital as the result of wounds inflicted by Edward Borneit some days ago. The case was in the Police Court yesterday and continued.

Dr. Groser Coming Here.

Mr. A. S. Groser, of Barton Heights, is expecting a visit about November 1st from his brother, Rev. Charles Eaton Groser, union of the Cathedral of Perth, Diocese of West Australia. Dr. Groser is at present attending the General Convention of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Boston, Mass., and after a week spent with relatives in New York will come to Richmond. He is visiting his native country after an absence of thirty years.

Inspect the Parks.

The Committee on Grounds and Buildings made a tour of inspection of the parks of the city yesterday, accompanied by Mayor McCarthy, Colonel Cutshaw and Chairman John R. Gimes. The parks were found to be in good condition, and the committee expressed much pleasure. The tour was the annual one, and most of the members were in the party.

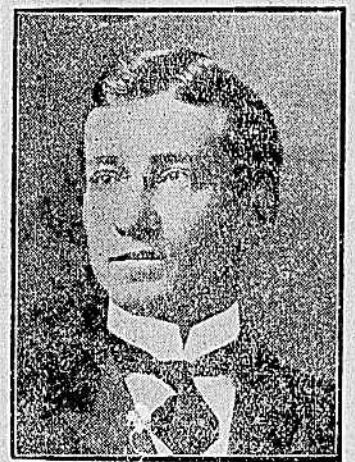

MAKING HIM FEEL AT HOME

Several Pastors Away at Revivals—One Church Receives Eleven Additions.

Rev. Ryland Knight preached his first sermon Sunday morning to a large and attentive audience. The pews were packed with those who had come to hear the first words of their new pastor.

Mr. Knight's text was taken from Second Peter, third chapter, verse thirteen. He spoke of the coming of the new heavens and the new earth, of God's great divine purpose, in moulding the earth to a purer form, and of each laborer's shame, however humble, in the "far off, divine event." His sermon was one of encouragement and hope to those who work faithfully and see so little result of their efforts. He showed that the little things count, too, in the great run of final fulfillment, and that to each will finally come the deserved reward.

In the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the Calvary Church and representatives of the religious bodies of the city met to give the incoming minister a welcome to the city's hospitality. Rev. Dr. W. R. L. Smith presided, and the choir furnished appropriate music. Many prominent people were on the platform and scattered about in the audience. The various societies of the church were present and were represented by their officers. Rev. Dr. I. M. Mercer, president of the Pastors' Conference, made an appropriate address of welcome.

REV. RYLAND KNIGHT,
Calvary's New Pastor Installed Sunday.

dress of welcome, and assured Mr. Knight of the hearty support and cooperation of his fellow-workers for God. Mr. William Elyson spoke for the Baptists of the city, and Rev. H. P. Atkins spoke for the other denominations.

Mr. Knight made a happy response, and pledged himself to devote his energies to the interests of the wide field in which he is now engaged.

The pastors of the Richmond Baptist Conference, in yesterday's meeting, decided to devote the morning service next Sunday to the discussion of city mission work, as conducted by Rev. James Buchanan, whose headquarters are at the Baptist Church, Powhatan county.

The conference will meet in the Ballard House next Monday.

Dr. J. B. Taylor, who is supplying at Monumental Baptist Church, yesterday read a highly interesting and thoughtful sermon before the Baptist Ministers' Conference.

Rev. W. E. Robinson, pastor of Randolph Street Baptist Church, is assisting in a protracted meeting in Graceland Baptist Church, Powhatan county.

Rev. J. O. Kirk, assisted by Rev. E. T. Smith, has just closed a successful meeting in Bethlehem Church, in Hanover county. There were eleven additions to the church.

Rev. C. P. Steady, pastor of Broadview Memorial Church, is at present engaged in conducting a meeting in Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, in Charles City county.

Dr. J. B. Hutson, pastor of Pine Street Baptist Church last week assisted Rev. J. R. Wilkinson in a revival meeting held at Mineral City Baptist Church.

Solomons' Will Probated.

The will of the late Henry C. Solomons was recorded in the Chancery Court yesterday. Mr. A. G. Collins became administrator, c. t. a. The estate is valued at $150.

COFFEE WAS IT.

People Slowly Learn the Facts.

"All my life I have been such a slave to coffee that the very aroma of it was enough to set my nerves quivering. I kept gradually losing my health, but I was too stupid to know it. I was told that I was too fat, and the final result was that my whole nervous force was shattered."

"My heart became weak and uncertain in its action, and that frightened me. Finally my physician told me, about a year ago, that I must stop drinking coffee, or I could never expect to be well again."

"I was in despair, for the very thought of the medicine I had tried so many times nauseated me. Of course, I thought of Postum, but could hardly bring myself to give up the coffee. Finally I concluded I owed it to myself to give Postum a trial. So I got a package and carefully followed the directions and what a delicious, nourishing, rich drink it was. Do you know I found it very easy to shift from the coffee to Postum and not mind the change at all. Almost immediately after I made the change I found myself better and as the days went by I kept on improving. My nerves grew sound and steady; I slept well and felt strong and well balanced all the time. Now I am completely cured, with the old nervousness and sickness all gone; every way I am well once more."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"It pays to give up the drink that acts on some like a poison, for health is the greatest fortune one can have."

"There's a reason!"

MILLIONS IN ADVERTISING

Railroads Publishing Magazines in Some Cases to Exploit Their Lines.

SOUTHERN AMONG NUMBER

Special Foot-Ball Train Saturday—Southern Tourist Travel—Personal.

During the last few years there has been a notable increase in the amount of money spent by the railroads of the country in advertising, says the New York Commercial. Only a few years ago the railroads very generally confined their advertisements to simply printing their time tables in the daily papers. At the present time there is hardly a road in the country, whether large or small, that does not do more or less special advertising.

Many now advertise on the most lavish scale, a number spending more than a quarter of a million dollars apiece each year in this way. Several of the railroads publish good size monthly magazines, that contain articles by some of the most prominent writers in the country. These magazines are profusely illustrated and cost thousands of dollars a year. The New York Central publishes the monthly magazine the Four Track News, while the Southern Pacific publishes a handsome monthly magazine called Sunset, which set forth the attractions of the territory through which these roads run. The Rock Island and the Atlantic issue monthly magazines, devoted to the exploitation of the advantages of the territories they serve. The Great Northern circulates an annual of much the same general type for each of the separate States it traverses. The Northern Pacific issues each year an exhaustive work on the wonders of the great Northwest. This publication is so valuable and interesting that it has been used as a text-book in several schools in England.

The Norfolk and Western Railway will operate a special train from this city to Norfolk next Saturday morning for the Exposition, consisting of persons in this city and Petersburg who desire to witness the annual game there in the afternoon between the foot-ball teams of the University of Virginia and the Carlisle Indian school.

Inquiries are numerous, and it is now certain that many will go down to see the greatest game of the season in the South. Virginia defeated Carlisle year before last by one point, and last year played the redoubtable Redskins to a standstill. Carlisle has a strong team this year, playing Harvard and Notre Dame Saturday. The game will be played at Lafayette Park. The train will reach this city on the return about 10 P. M.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway is still selling many tickets to the St. Louis Exposition, and travel to the Exposition City holds up remarkably well. Many have gone from this State and hundreds will go. The demand for Pullman reservations is great, but it is being supplied.

President George W. Stevens, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, who was absent many of last week in the West, left Sunday night for New York on business of the railway system.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway will put on its special Florida train service about January 15th. There was some talk last year among railroad men of an alternation of trains to Florida, one road running one day and another the next, but so far as known now all three roads, the Seaboard, the Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line, will run the same train service as last year. These elegant trains are run at an actual loss every winter, but they are steadily building up patronage year by year.

On and after November 6th, the Southern Railway train No. 11, now leaving at 11 P. M., will leave at 11:30 instead, arriving at Danville at 4:35 A. M., and at Charlottesville at 8 A. M.

Mr. John E. Wagner, city clerk agent of the Norfolk and Western, and Captain R. T. Adams, of Trilby excursion fame, are in St. Louis attending the Exposition. They are expected home this week.

Mr. Jones Is Fined.

Judge R. Carter Scott, of the Circuit Court of Henrico, yesterday fined Mr. William Ellis Jones $5 for being late in his attendance upon the court as a juror. Mr. Jones thought the hour of meeting was 11 o'clock, and he arrived at 10:52. He was excused from serving on the jury because he was over sixty years of age.

Firemen Remembered.

The R. A. Patterson Tobacco Company has sent their check for $300 to the Firemen's Relief Association, together with a letter warmly praising the department for its faithful service on the occasion of the fire, which destroyed the factory of the company last week.

Lecture on European Travel.

Rev. Dr. W. W. Moore, of Union Theological Seminary, has consented to deliver a lecture on "European Travel" at a lecture next Friday night, the 25th, at 8 P. M. A large audience is expected to hear this popular speaker. Other lectures are to follow in the full and winter.

Commissioners Are Away.

Judge Beverly T. Crump, of the State Corporation Commission, is in St. Louis, attending the convention of the Southern Railroad Commissioners, now in session there. Commissioner Henry C. Stuart is in Europe, spending a few weeks, accompanied by Mrs. Stuart.

Suit Dismissed.

The suit of J. P. Riddell vs. Hannah H. Bloomberg for $5,000 for alleged slander, was dismissed yesterday in the Law and Equity Court.

To Address the Synod.

Dr. James P. Smith and Dr. W. W. Moore will make addresses to-day before the Presbyterian Synod now convening at Martinsburg, W. Va.

MR. ST. CLAIR SAYS WYSOR WILL WIN

Ninth District Chairman Is Confident of Victory.

State Senator Peyton F. St. Clair, of Giles, chairman of the Democratic Committee of the Ninth Congressional District, passed through Richmond Sunday night, on his way to another section of the State, to look after some private matters. Mr. St. Clair spent a few hours before and after the session of the State House, and discussed the Congressional situation in his district in a most interesting manner.

"You may state for me," he said, "that we are confident of the election of Mr. Joseph C. Wysox to Congress over Mr. Slomp, his Republican competitor." Asked upon what he based his claim to victory, Mr. St. Clair said he expected the Democrats to carry every county in the district, except Fawcett, Wise and Lee, and that indications were favorable to the reduced Republican majority in these.

"All factions of our party are pulling together," said Mr. St. Clair, "and there has never been a more brilliant or powerful canvass made by the Democrats of the district."
